TOO WEAK TO WORK

Suffered from Stomach Trouble and General Debility. Mrs. Minor Was Weak, Sick, Discouraged.

Restored to Health by Vinol.
"Last January I was all run down in health and so weak that I was unable to attend to my household duties. I was very much discouraged with my condition, as I was receiving no benefit whatever from the medicine I had taken. Finally, on the recommendation of my druggist I decided to try the cod liver and iron preparation, Vinol. In a short time I felt better and after taking five bottles my health was fully restored. I have suffered from stomach trouble for years, but since taking Vinol this trouble has entirely disappeared, and I now eat better, sleep better and better than I have been for a long time. Vinol certainly worked wonders in my case, and I heartily recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine." Mrs. Harvey L. Minor, Canal Dover, Ohio.
With such evidence of the power of Vinol to restore strength and vitality to all weak and sickly persons do you wonder that we do not fear to try Vinol. It is safe to benefit you will return your money. That's your guarantee—White's Pharmacy, Pensacola.

IN BUSINESS, NOT POLITICS

T. A. JENNINGS, PRESIDENT OF THE WILLIAMS NAVAL STORES CO., TALKS TO NEWSPAPER MEN WHILE IN MONTGOMERY.

The following is from the Montgomery Advertiser of yesterday:

"Say anything about me, except that I am or have been a candidate for governor of Florida."

In these words, Hon. T. A. Jennings, of Pensacola, Fla., who spent Friday in Montgomery, made it known that he is more of a business man than a politician. Mr. Jennings came to Montgomery to confer with a number of other naval stores magnates concerning the sale of the J. R. Saunders Naval Stores company, and the transaction was closed, as was told by the Advertiser yesterday morning.

Mr. Jennings is one of the foremost citizens of Pensacola. He has large interests there and naturally he thinks Pensacola is "the one best bet" of the Gulf coast cities. He is a man of attractive personality, with a direct, frank way of talking. Broad-shouldered, erect, and heavily built, with a florid, clean-shaven face, he looks more the strong man of outdoors, the man of the wood and field, rather than the capitalist whose duties are done in an office building.

Being the National Democratic committeeman for Florida, Mr. Jennings was of course, questioned concerning politics in his state. Plainly it was not a subject to his liking.

"Some of my good friends did mention me as a candidate for governor last year," he said, "but I did not run, and I did not get beat."

It had been intimated that Mr. Jennings had been a defeated candidate for office.

"No, don't say I got beat for any office. I am just a business man."

Then the subject veered to William Jennings Bryan.

"Mr. Bryan is coming to Florida real soon," declared Mr. Jennings. "If he comes to Pensacola I hope to see him. No, he is not my kinsman. You are thinking of the other fellow, Governor Jennings. I am not the Jennings."

Mr. Jennings did not care to discuss the probability of a state-wide prohibition law for Florida or other public questions. He stressed the fact that he was in Montgomery on business. He was willing to be generous with his time in talking of Pensacola and its future development as a seaport. He believes in Pensacola.

The distinguished Pensacolian returned to his home late Friday evening.

NEW EXPORT FIRM LOCATES IN PENSACOLA

J. CARRERAS FERRER OPENS OFFICES IN PENSACOLA AND WILL SHIP TO SPAIN, WHERE HE IS LARGELY INTERESTED IN LUMBER.

A new exporting firm, which is to ship exclusively to Spain, has opened offices in Pensacola. J. Carreras Ferrer, who is represented by Jaime Garriga, is the party to open an office here, and shipments will be commenced at an early date, going to Spain, where during the past year or two, lumber shipments from Pensacola have been comparatively light. With the new company in the field, however, it is expected that trade with Spain will be resumed on its former basis.

It is understood that Mr. Garriga has already purchased two or three cargoes for shipment at an early date to his firm, which is largely interested in the lumber business in Spain.

REV. PAUL PRICE DRAWS CROWDS

SPOKE LAST NIGHT ON SUBJECT OF "GOOD SAMARITAN" TO AN INTERESTED AUDIENCE.

A large congregation heard the Rev. Paul Price at the First Baptist church last night, his theme for the evening having been "The Good Samaritan." The thoughts advanced during the evening by the Rev. Price were all of a high order, being much appreciated by those in attendance, and his manner of handling his topic was all that could be desired. In fact, he is making a very good impression indeed among Pensacola people, and his daily meetings are growing exceptionally popular.

There are bible lectures each afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, which are followed by the regular evening services at 7:30 o'clock.

On account of these meetings which are occurring at the First Baptist church, there will be no meeting at the East Hill Baptist church tonight, the regular prayer meeting to be omitted in order that as large an attendance as possible may be present to hear the Rev. Mr. Price.
